A scenic view of the Whanganui city skyline from a hillside. In the foreground, a wooden bench with black metal armrests is partially visible. The middle ground shows a dense urban area with various buildings, including a prominent HSBC tower and a Fujitsu building. The city is situated along a wide river that flows into the sea. In the background, there are rolling green hills under a clear blue sky with some light clouds. A teal-colored text box is overlaid on the right side of the image.
